SELLING AT THE OPENING OF THE HEREFORD SALE - THURSDAY MARCH 6, 2014
Approximately a Quarter to 12:00 Noon MST

TO BENEFIT THE FUNDS ADMINISTERED BY

The KEITH GILMORE FOUNDATION

These solid – bronze bookends are #8 of 35. They were commissioned by the Gilmore family in the early 1970's. The artist is GINA MCDUGALL COHOE who is very familiar to the ranching community for her depictions of livestock and wildlife and the ranching industry in general. She has been sculpting bronzes for more than 30 years. Gina's works have been collected worldwide with over 70 editions sold out. One of her larger pieces is a rotating trophy for the grand champion Hereford bull at the Medicine Hat Bull Sale every year.
